

Invitation

To a group of students and teachers at Ibni Sina Anadolu Lisesi, Iskenderun, Turkey

Students: Cansu Arslan, Egemen Giray, Sedef Topalı, Berkay Yalovaç

Coordinating teacher: Filiz Egemen

Principal: Kenan Tıraş

You are all invited to come to Romania for the fourth and last meeting in our Erasmus+ project, "Challenging Communication in a Committing Community" – "The 4C's", at Liceul Teoretic "Dr. Mihai Ciuca" in Saveni, Romania, 13th – 20th May, 2016.

All participants will have accomodation and meals and they will participate in the everyday family life of their hosts. At school, you will take part in lessons and bring your contribution to the last task of our project. Knowing that the topic is Democracy and debates are the most democratic exercise for expressing opinions, criticise things and discuss solutions, you will be divided in groups, choose a topic of democratic interest, make research on it and come up with arguments for or against it. Teachers will guide you and help you in your quest. As a conclusion of this activity, a final debate will be organized. The most interesting topic and the convicing teams will be honoured.

We hope that you will have a great experience by visiting Romania, show an open mind while finding out about our culture and customs, share opinions with the people you meet and work with, enhance your skills of being a European citizen.

We are looking forward to your visit!

Coordinating teacher,
Cristina Chiorescu

Teachers:
Gratiela Belecciu
Cristina Prisecaru

School headmistress,
Florica Nechifor

Invitation

To a group of students and teachers at Agerbaek School, Denmark

Students: Astrid Risbøl Hansen, Karoline Feddersen, Tobias Svane Mikkelsen, Laura Skovbjerg, Laura Conradsen, Mathilde Kjær, Kathrine Vestkær, Line Friis

Coordinating teacher: Ulla Lambek

Teacher: Johnny Erichsen

You are all invited to come to Romania for the fourth and last meeting in our Erasmus+ project, "Challenging Communication in a Committing Community" – "The 4C's", at Liceul Teoretic "Dr. Mihai Ciuca" in Saveni, Romania, 13th – 20th May, 2016.

All participants will have accomodation and meals and they will participate in the everyday family life of their hosts. At school, you will take part in lessons and bring your contribution to the last task of our project. Knowing that the topic is Democracy and debates are the most democratic exercise for expressing opinions, criticise things and discuss solutions, you will be divided in groups, choose a topic of democratic interest, make research on it and come up with arguments for or against it. Teachers will guide you and help you in your quest. As a conclusion of this activity, a final debate will be organized. The most interesting topic and the convicing teams will be honoured.

We hope that you will have a great experience by visiting Romania, show an open mind while finding out about our culture and customs, share opinions with the people you meet and work with, enhance your skills of being a European citizen.

We are looking forward to your visit!

Coordinating teacher,
Cristina Chiorescu

Teachers:
Gratiela Belecciu
Cristina Prisecaru

School headmistress,
Florica Nechifor

Invitation

To a group of students and teachers at Gimnazjum nr 6 w Koszalinie, Poland

Students: Krukowska Julia, Polakowska Magda, Jaźwińska Jagoda, Holak Dominika, Jędryka Wiktor, Salloum Sara, Małkowska Maria, Czyżyk Karol, Meyer Kamil, Kruk Wojciech, Bielska Wiktoria, Kokot Klaudia, Ustianowska Julia
Coordinating teacher: Joanna Śliżewska
Teachers: Anna Prabucka, Sylwia Kielar

You are all invited to come to Romania for the fourth and last meeting in our Erasmus+ project, "Challenging Communication in a Committing Community" – "The 4C's", at Liceul Teoretic "Dr. Mihai Ciuca" in Saveni, Romania, 13th – 20th May, 2016.

All participants will have accomodation and meals and they will participate in the everyday family life of their hosts. At school, you will take part in lessons and bring your contribution to the last task of our project. Knowing that the topic is Democracy and debates are the most democratic exercise for expressing opinions, criticise things and discuss solutions, you will be divided in groups, choose a topic of democratic interest, make research on it and come up with arguments for or against it. Teachers will guide you and help you in your quest. As a conclusion of this activity, a final debate will be organized. The most interesting topic and the convicing teams will be honoured.

We hope that you will have a great experience by visiting Romania, show an open mind while finding out about our culture and customs, share opinions with the people you meet and work with, enhance your skills of being a European citizen.

We are looking forward to your visit!

Coordinating teacher,
Cristina Chiorescu

Teachers:
Gratiela Belecciu
Cristina Prisecaru

School headmistress,
Florica Nechifor

